

Application for Departmental Support for Non-Duke Committee Members to Attend PhD Defenses

The department provides travel support for a PhD supervisory committee member to attend a PhD defense at Duke. To qualify, the committee member's primary affiliation must not be Duke University.

Please note: A) Departmental support for such travel is subject to availability of funds. B) If it is appropriate to reimburse the travel expense from research grants or funds allotted for departmental colloquia or research group seminars, then these other sources of support should be explored before this application can be considered.
